

WHAT HAPPENED IN CHICAGO

Louis Segadalli, 30, alias Louis Sprague, held in connection with death of Merle Tarbox, 325 S. Oakly st. Tarbox was killed resisting three hold-up men on Monroe st.

Five hurt by flying glass when street car crashed into garbage box at Lake and Halsted sts. Box slipped off train of garbage cars. Traffic delayed half hour.

Lee Sing, owner of restaurant 303 E. 35th st., beaten and robbed by three men. Lost $23.

Eight overcome by coal gas, 166 N. Halsted st. All revived.

Anton Eischen, 29, 460 N. Halsted st., found dead in air shaft. Police suspect foul play.

Policeman John McGuire, 4308 S. Wabash av., struck by auto truck. Chester Abel, driver, arrested.

Hearing of Rickett million-dollar art failure delayed by death of mother of creditors' attorney.

Wallace Berry, movie actor Esanay Company, missed fire net in movie play. Painfully injured.

John Brannon, 43, Piedmont, Cal., taken from Santa Fe train. Was going to Ireland to take part in home rule fight. Will be given sanity test.

$300,000 sought to save Trinity Episcopal Church from closing doors.

Citizens' Union condemned war with Mexico. Resolution demanding intervention snowed under at mass meeting.

1,893 persons cared for in one day at County Hospital. Record for institution.

Jane Addams says mothers should decide whether liquor should be sold at public dance halls. Claims 76,000 boys and girls attend places.

Mrs. Potter Palmer not at home when reporters asked about missing $67,000 world's fair fund.

Problem play called evil in disguise by speaker at Sunday Evening Club.

George Dedrow struck by auto at W. 15th and Loomis sts. Dying. Auto sned away.

Terminal ordinance before council tonight. Everybody boosting to get job started.

Paperhangers' Union wants injunction to restrain dissolution of union by Building Trades Council.

Peter Satcauski, watchman, 3035 S. Halsted st., robbed by two men. Lost $16.

Herbert Roenfield, confessed highwayman, begged police to kill him. Claims he stole to support starving family.

Home of Nicholas L. Piotrowski destroyed by fire. Loss $75,000.

Major Funkhouser calls alleged $500 theft at 513 N. LaSalle st "frame up." Money supposed to be stolen in raid, on dive. Police threaten libel suit.

David O'Connor, 4506 S. 5th av., arrested in St. Louis as hold-up man.

Woman supposed to be "Miss Vera Lyons" found suffering from morphine poisoning at Pacific Hotel. May die.

Byron Laffin Smith, founder and president of Northern Trust Co., dead. Heart trouble.

Mrs. Warren Springer sued for $11,600 by architects. Ordered plans for $250,000 hospital twice. Would not accept plans.

Railroad detective unable to trace wreckers of Pacific Coast flyer.

Fifty pastors denounced "dope" traffic and demanded legislation against habit-forming drugs.

Big slump in police pension fund. Payments may be cut down.

George Tieman, 6530 S. Union av., suicided. Gas.

Hospitals to be searched for Mrs. John Hemmen, missing Waukegan woman.

Leo DeVemen, janitor, 1652 Estes av., arrested for taking tenants' milk.

Steve Szoke, 16, 1223 W. 33d st., shot in right ankle. Companion blamed for shooting.

Mahan Hagzovich and Hamid Hasandgovich shot by Daniel Micksick.